New York World.
The Twice-a-week edition of the New York World has been converted into the Thrice-a-week. It furnishes 3 papers of 6 pages apiece or eighteen pages every week, at the old price of One Dollar a year. This gives 156 Paper a year for One Dollar and every Paper has 6 pages eight columns wide or 48 columns in all. The Thrice-a-week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly.

We have made arrangements to send the Thrice-a-week World and THE REPUBLICAN for only $1.65 per year. Subscribe at once. Yours,

THE REPUBLICAN.

IN NORTH DAKOTA.

A Family That is Favored with a Well of Ice Water.

It is very refreshing in hot weather to have an abundance of clear, cold water. Many have wells which have these characteristics, but not all can boast of such a well as described by a Hartford lawyer in the Hartford Courant. He was stopping with a family in North Dakota. It was in July, and clear, cold water—a luxury he did not frequently find—was most acceptable. The water on the table was so very sweet and so very cold, that he was led to remark on its excellence.

"Yes, our well has always satisfied us, and we think we have a good thing when we can draw ice water in midsummer."

"It certainly is as cold as ice water," said the visitor, not believing the remark was meant exactly literally.

"No, but it's actually ice water; we'll show it to you after dinner."

And after dinner out they went and the New England man was asked to look down. It was a small, round, brick shaft, much like the old wells seen hereabouts, and went down to an extraordinary depth. But there was a beautiful sight at the bottom. It was, sure enough, a natural ice water tank. Pieces of clear ice floated in the water, and a closet showed a thick coating of ice all around the sides for quite a distance above the water. The melting was surely slow enough down there, and the prospect was good for plenty of ice water, at least till the hot weather was over.

The explanation was simple enough. When the bucket is drawn a little of the water always spills or drips, and often strikes the sides of the well as it falls. In the winter— and Dakota winters are cold—this water at once freezes, and soon the entire length of the shaft is lined with ice. This thickens with an increasing rate, and it is frequently necessary to cut it away with an ax to make room in which the bucket can slide up and down. In the spring this begins to melt, and the farther down, the slower is the process of melting.

FRIDAY IN AMERICA.

Precedent Makes It the Luckiest Day in the Week.

Friday should be the lucky day for all Americans, for upon that day Christopher Columbus sailed from the port of Palos on his voyage of discovery. All his plans were made upon that day, and the substantial details of the long voyage were arranged on Friday. He saw the first indications of the new land on Friday, when birds visited his ships, and on Friday, October 12, 1492, he discovered land. On Friday he planted the cross on the soil of the new world. On Friday, October 19, he sent his official announcement of his return in the month of April. He entered Barcelona in triumph on Friday. On Friday, November 10, he found a cross planted by an unknown hand on a deserted island in the sea of Notre Dame. On Friday, November 20, he planted a cross in Puerto-Santo, and on Friday, January 4, he set sail for Spain. It was on Friday his fleet caught a phenomenal stock of fish. On Friday, February 16, he successfully passed through a fearful hurricane. On Friday, March 8, he received an invitation from a former enemy, the king of Portugal, to dine with him. On Friday, March 16, he entered Palos like a conqueror. Fourteen successive Fridays of such distinguishing note should make the day a lucky one.

A Household Treasury.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best Cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a ready so long tried and tested. Trial bottle free at Williams & Bell's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Literary News.

Rudyard Kipling makes his last appearance as a teller of Jungle Stories for THE Cosmopolitan for October. "Mowgli Leaves the Jungle Forever," and the curtain is drawn over one of the most charming conceits in literature. In the same manner in which Kipling makes his final adieu, appears for the first time before an American audience, the now-famed Richard Le Gallienne in a plea for Rigoletto.

HEALTHY CHILDREN

comes from healthy mothers and mothers will certainly be healthy if they take Dr. Piero's Favorite Prescription. It will equal it in building up a woman's strength, in renewing all her natural functions, and in putting in perfect order every part of the female system.

"Favorite Prescription" is indeed the "Mother's Friend" for it assists nature, thereby shortening.

Tinks, Cattie County, Texas.

DR. R. V. PIERCE: Dear Sir—I took your favorite Prescription the previous to confinement and was in full strength in only two weeks since my confinement and I am able to do my work. I feel stronger than ever did in six weeks before.

ness of Man." A very important paper on "State Universities" is contributed to this number by Professor Ely. And among the story-tellers are Hopkinson Smith and Boyesen. No more beautiful work has ever appeared in any magazine than the marvelous illustrations of Cabriton used as a frontispiece and accompanying the prose poem by Mrs. Carozza. Drake—who is said to be Kipling's favorite artist for his Jungle Stories—Carter Beard, Osterlin, Denman, and Cemble, are among those who contribute a wealth of illustration to this number. The Cosmopolitan announces that it will begin the publication in January of THE Agriculturist's Illustrated Magazine, to be fully the equal of the Cosmopolitan, but containing from sixteen to twenty pages by the ablest agricultural writers of the world, upon subjects of importance to the agriculturist, horticulturist, and stock growing interests.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifier, acting directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

The Annual Fair Ball.

Last Friday night was the time set apart by the young people of Hartford for the Annual Fair Ball. Everything had been put in readiness at the Hartford House for the occasion and a pleasant time was assured all who were to attend. Music was furnished by the Phillips String Band and the young people enjoyed the peculiar thrills or heart which is produced by engaging in the tripping of the light fantastic. The following were in attendance:

Misses Pearl Joplin, Elizabethtown; C. M. Barnett, B. D. Ringo, and J. P. Miller, candidates for Representative of Ohio county, will speak at the time and places mentioned below. Mr. W. M. Likens, also candidate, is invited and expected to be present at each place and not the less notable for its erudition.

Gen. Hardin is getting quite spunkey since the debates are declared off.

Why didn't he show some of that spirit in his first debate? It reminds me of a small dog running out from under the house to bark when he thinks the danger is all over—

Allen-Childs.

During the G. A. R. Encampment at Louisville last Monday, Mr. Thomas Allen and Miss Ida Childs, both of Rosine, went to Louisville, ostensibly to attend the Encampment, but there were other attractions for them. Immediately upon arriving in Louisville they proceeded over to Jeffersontown and were united in marriage by Esq. Hawes. They returned to Rosine that same evening, each going to their own home, and as yet none of their most intimate friends know of the elopement. Mr. Allen is Constable for the Rosine Magisterial District and is in the drug business at Rosine, while his bride is a highly cultured and popular young lady who has frequently visited in Hartford. The REpublican joins with their many friends in wishing for them a long and happy life.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Why send your clothes off to the city to have them cleaned and dyed when Uncle Joe guarantees as good work for one-half what it will cost you to send off and have the work done? Uncle Joe, the clothes cleaner and dyer, will not leave as before stated, but will remain in Hartford until October 20th, 1895. All parties having clothing to clean or dye, can find him at his rooms over the Westfield meat market, on Market street, Hartford. I have done work for Dr. J. S. Coleman, Rev. E. E. Pate, Rev. E. Lee Simmerman, G. B. Likens, D. M. Hocker, G. G. Fair, Rev. J. R. Brandon, Dr. W. Alexander, C. R. Martin, and others, to whom I respectfully refer you for reference.

UNCLE JOE.

We have received a copy of a unique publication called H. M. Greene & Co.'s "History of Grain and the Grain Trade of the World." It is printed in colors and is illustrated with a picture some 6,000 years old, from the tombs of Thebes, representing the ancient Egyptians elevating their dead into granaries. There is also a threshing song in hieroglyphics, with the translation of each character. The book covers the prehistoric characters of the subject. Egyptian, Chaldean, Assyrian, Babylonian, Persian, and Persian.

The big Daviess County Fair is being largely attended, and so far, is a success in every particular. Plenty of fine stock, good races, and an elegant display in Floral Hall. The bicycle races beginning Tuesday are the most attractive feature of the fair. Side shows are numerous and the "small boy" is happy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hardwick went to Owensboro Wednesday to spend several days visiting relatives.

A CALL.

Next Monday is County Court and a great many people will be in Hartford.

Are you a subscriber to THE REPUBLICAN? If not you should call at the office and have your name entered on our subscription list. If you are a subscriber, look at the label on your paper and you will see how much you owe, bring that along with you. This week we have mailed several hundred statements to subscribers who are in arrears with us, and to those we kindly ask that you bring the amount when you come to town next Monday or send it in at once. Now, this is a mere matter of business, and we need the money, just like you need and want what is owing to you. Don't get mad and say you have paid that to Mr. So-and-So. We always know when it has been paid. But come in and give us a call with a financial ring.

Norman's Big Bluff.

A partisan grand jury, headed by a man who has a son in the employment of the State, had decided that the Louisville Commercial is guilty of criminal libel. The grand jury is sworn not to reveal what takes place in the grand jury room, but two days ago it was known that the indictments would be returned. Mr. Norman has worn out several pairs of shoes running between the grand jury room and his office. The grand jury certainly takes a great deal upon itself to say whether Mr. Norman's books are correct or whether the statements in The Commercial are true. This last bluff of Mr. Norman is in the dying kick of a gang that has had control of the treasury for many years.

The Commercial still feels it has told the truth, and this morning shows another place where over $4,000 was withdrawn from the treasury without "warrant of law." Col. R. M. Kelly, Mr. Walter Forester and Mr. Deitzman, all of whom are connected with The Commercial, will probably be in the city by tomorrow.

Gentlemen, we greet you, and allow us on behalf of a people who are right close to the State House, and who every day have a chance to see what is going on, to extend the hand and to wish that you may continue to expose the dishonest clique that now controls State affairs, Franklin county grand juries to the contrary notwithstanding.—[Frankfort Evening Journal].

Not Highly Cultivated.

That is what Hardin called the people of Central City according to the Louisville Post:

Hardin, at Central City, spoke his little piece to a little band of 150 doleful, discouraged Democrats. He commenced by saying, "I love to speak to plain country people like you are." Definition of plain, according to Webster, is, "honestly; not highly cultivated; unsophisticated; common." This, no doubt, would be the kind of audience Hardin would like to try his powers on, but he will find it impossible to secure such an audience from the Democratic voters in Kentucky, either in the cities, towns or country of the glorious old Commonwealth.

With the sound money Democrats who carried the June convention by a vote of 644 to 233 arrayed against Hardin, what hope of success can his friends find in his campaign? The majority will remain neutral, many will vote for Bradley and some are actively fighting Hardin. With a strong wing of his party against him, Hardin's position is not an enviable one, to say the least.—[Louisville Star].

Weakness Disappeared.

"I was in feeble health last winter and was under the physician's care for some time. Finally I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and have been greatly benefited by its use. My appetite has been restored and the weakness with which I suffered has left me." MAGGIE M. LEE, Bardstown, Ky.

CHRONIC MALARIA,

A Very Prevalent Disease
Following the Hot Summer of 1895.

The continuance of hot and dry weather is sure to produce the prevalence of chronic malaria. The past summer has been exactly suitable for the production of a great deal of malaria. Even in localities where malaria has been previously unknown many cases of malaria are developed. This form of malaria is distinguished from the old fashioned fever and ague by the insidiousness of its attack and the difficulty with which it is cured. It does not come on quickly, like chills and fever. The symptoms pester and provoke sometimes for several weeks before the patient is made sick enough to take medicine.

Slight, chilly sensations, cold, sweaty spells, frontal headache, bili-ousness, furred tongues, bad taste in the mouth, sticky mucus to the throat, constipation, languor, etc.

A medical treatise on chronic malaria will be sent free by The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio. This book is a complete guide to the prevention and cure of malaria in its various forms. Pe-ru-na has long since been recognized as the only infallible cure for the chronic form of malaria. While quinine has become the standard remedy for acute malaria, commonly called fever and ague, many people have found by bitter experience that it will not cure the chronic form. Pe-ru-na cures these cases promptly and permanently.

EASILY SWINDLED.
The Stranger Was Too Ready to Help the Powerful.

I was sitting in a railroad depot in Buffalo, says a writer in the Detroit Free Press, waiting for a train when a stranger approached me and said:

"It's kinder queer how hard up the best of us may get sometimes, eh?"

"How do you mean?" I asked.

"Well, I just met the governor of New York out here, Levi P. Morton, and he asked me for the loan of two dollars."

"You don't say!"

"That's what's the matter. Had his pocket picked and wanted to use two dollars right away. He didn't know what to do about it till he saw me."

"You know him, then?"

"Never sat eyes on him afore to-day. He just picked me out of the crowd for a man who'd do him a favor. He only wanted two dollars but I made him take three. He'll send it back in a day or two. Ever meet the governor?"

"I've seen him several times."

"Wonder how he got his nose broke?"

"His nose isn't broken. What sort of a man was the chap you lent money to?"

"Red hair—side whiskers—broken nose, and two teeth out in front."

"Gov. Morton is no such looking man. You have been swindled by some sharper."

"It can't be! He said he was the governor!"

"I might say the same thing."

"And he called me by name?"

"So can I. You are James H. Johnson. There is your name on your satchel. Is the man around here, do you think?"

We went to the door of the depot and looked around, and we went to the depot office and he looked around, but the "governor" had vanished, as might have been expected. "You ought to have known better!" exclaimed the officer, after giving up the search.

"How had I other known better?" demanded the victim. " Didn't he pick me out as a man who'd do him a favor? Didn't he say he was Gov. Morton? Didn't he praise my confidence in human nature? When I made him take three dollars?"

"You'd better go and soak your head!"

"What fur? What good will soakin' my head do?"

The officer turned away with a tired look, and the old man sat down and thought it all over and then said to me:

"Yes, I guess I've bin swindled, and I guess I'm to blame for it. It's a good experience, though, I felt so mighty proud about lendin' the governor of New York three dollars that if a feller had come along and said he was president of the United States I'd a-handled him over the otherseven dollars and walked sixty-two miles to git home."

A STORY OF THE TURF.

A Mile in Four Hours, Eleven Minutes and Sixteen Seconds.

"What was da time dat you run dat mile in when you win de race?" said one jockey to another.

"Foh' hours, lebbin' minutes an' sixteen seconds."

"Go long, man, what you talkin' 'bout?"

"I's talkin' 'bout de troof. Yoh see, daw was three horses in de race, an' eb'ry owner was skeered ter win, 'cause he didn't like de odds, an' wanted ter save up 's chances foh annudah spin. So in de home stretch eb'ry boy laid hisse'f back an' pulled de lines, an' kepp' on a-pullin' tell de horses stopped, 'cause no one wouldn't go 'long ahead. An' daw we stood, 'cause eb'ry one er us was boun' not ter be winner. I sot an' sot, an' de fus' ting I know, I done got sleepy, an' de hoss jes' natchery walked in 'fore I knowned it. I neber will b'lieve but what one er dem yuther boys done got me mesmerized."—Washington Star.

A Delicious Bisque of Crabs.

Pick shreds the white meat from the claws of one large boiled hard-shell crab and put it in the refrigerator in a covered dish until wanted. Take the pulpy part of the crab and the white meat that is found in the shell and mince finely.

With three tablespoonsfuls of rice which has been boiled in stock. Add to this a quart of consomme and season with cayenne pepper. Before serving take the shredded meat previously alluded to, add to the soup, and serve in a hot tureen.—N. Y. World.

The Gold in the Sea.

Prof. Hunnicke, of Washington university, St. Louis, is about applying for a process by which he claims, ten thousand dollars' worth of gold can be obtained from seawater at a cost of one dollar, every ton of water yielding from two to four cents' worth of gold. He insists that no nation will hereafter suffer from a scarcity of gold; that gold will come from "the vasty deep" whenever called for, though spirits refuse to come.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and some remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.
